

LOTTERY PRODUCTS OF THE YEAR AWARD

Public Gaming Research Institute initiated the “Lottery Products of the Year” Award competition in 2005. The objective is to bring to the attention of everyone in the lottery industry important new products that have shown promise of being important, long-term contributors to the revenue successes of the lotteries.

- * Award winners will be publicized in every issue of PGRI magazine for the following 12 months.
- * Award winners will be publicized in the weekly electronic edition of the PGRI Morning Report (distribution 21,000).
- * Award winners will receive authorization to use the prestigious “PGRI Lottery Product of the Year Award” on their own company and product literature.

A product may be submitted for consideration by either a lottery representative or a representative of the manufacturing company. Who submits the entry will not influence the judging. Products will be judged by a panel of lottery directors. Products must be presented in person during the EXPO/ILAC 2006 to qualify for an Award and qualifying Vendors must be a Conference Sponsor at least the BRASS level.
