New York, NY - The Chelsea Kennel Club of New York recently announced a significant partnership with Animal Planet and Gerrard Larriett Aromatherapy Pet Care. Under the partnership puppies from the Chelsea Kennel Club will appear on a special being produced by the Animal Planet that will air on Saturday, December 22, 2012 at 9:00 PM EST/PT. The special is called "The Year in Pup Culture" and it's certain to be a hit with animal lovers everywhere. Dana Derraugh, owner of the Chelsea Kennel Club is thrilled that many of her puppies are making their acting debut in the special. Derraugh has over 25 years of experience in the pet world and in addition to the Chelsea Kennel Club owns the Le Petit Puppy, New York's luxury puppy and grooming store located in the Greenwich Village section of the city. It is no surprise that Animal Planet turned to Derraugh to supply the puppies for their special.

The Year in Pup Culture looks back at the most memorable moments of 2012 as only Animal Planet can, with adorable puppies reenacting the events of the year. The events include headline grabbing moments as well as scenes from some of the top movies of 2012. Imagine the puppies reenacting top Olympic moments or scenes from the "Hunger Games." Some of those puppies will be from the Chelsea Kennel Club.

The Chelsea Kennel Club has been called a pet store without cages and Dana Derraugh makes sure to carry only the highest quality and eco-friendly products that include pet shampoo, grooming products, conditioner and deodorizing candles to name a few. To pamper her high end clients at both the Chelsea Kennel Club and Le Petit Puppy, Derraugh offers the quality products offered by Gerrard Larriett Aromatherapy Pet Care. At both boutiques, clients will find the Gerrard Larriett aromatherapy deodorizing soy candle, shampoo and conditioner, freshening and shining spray and treatment experience for pets. The Gerrard Larriett products are very popular with clients at both of Derraugh's locations and Derraugh herself uses them extensively. In fact Derraugh recently said, "My favorite Gerrard Larriett product is the Happy Jasmine Aromatherapy Deodorizing Soy Candle which we burn in our stores to keep the puppy odor to a minimum." There's no doubt that when the puppies from Chelsea Kennel Club make their television debut on Saturday, December 22 they will be prepared for their starring performance using the Gerrard Larriett products.
