Gerrard Larriett Aromatherapy Pet Care

There's a nostalgic smell to rose-water, something that reminds you of your grandma's garden. But, lately, the only garden I'm smelling is the mud and grass smells my dog is tracking around. It's been a long winter and a wet spring, and I'm longing for a change from that funky dog odor. Ahh, thank goodness sweet springy relief comes from Gerrard Larriett.

I've been savoring the smell of our Balancing Rose candle since I first reviewed the Gerrard Larriett set in 2013, and the freshening and shining spray is a go-to whenever Kayden is going to be in my car or the office. Since he smells like such a gentleman, my fellow Embracer, Diana, has also been trying out the gift set to much acclaim:

"The spray is a really nice instant refresher for my pets. I used it right before leaving for a long car ride when I did not have enough time to wash my dogs beforehand. It made my whole car smell like roses and worked great! The shampoo lathers nicely and leaves their coats really soft. I think the best part about the whole package was the candle, it made my entire house smell great and I got a lot of comments from guests who stopped by about the nice smell."

I have to agree with Diana. The candle is so light and pretty, and this is coming from a "not-really-a-candle-person" person. Even my husband likes it. It's a far-cry from the other offensive and abrasive pet-odor fighting candles I've encountered. If rose isn't really your thing, you can always try one of their other aromatherapy scents:

- Happy Jasmine
- Relaxing Wildwoods
- De-stress Lavender & Chamomile
- Energizing Grapefruit & Spearmint Aromatherapy

I'm happy to report that since our first trial in 2013, Gerrard Larriett has lowered their prices and switched to a bio-degradable formula. It is so nice when a good product gets better!
