A LITTLE CHRISTMAS EVERY DAY

by Dalton Roberts

Verse

If Christmas was snow, it might melt, you know.
Christmas might melt and run away.
If it was mistletoe It might kiss and go.
Christmas might kiss and go away.

Verse

If Christmas was toys, then little girls and boys
Might have to throw their Christmas away.
For toys often break and their hearts would ache
To see their Christmas tossed away.

Chorus

But we have some news about Christmas.
It doesn't have to go away.
Oh when you give love, even just a little hug
You'll have a little Christmas ev'ry day.

Verse

Oh Santa is dear, how he brings lots of cheer
But Santa is here for just a day.
And greater by far is the Bethlehem star
Our first gift our first Christmas day.

Chorus

He's the good news about Christmas
That shines in our hearts ev'ry day,
And when you give love, even just a little hug.
You'll have a little Christmas ev'ry day.

So give someone a hug from a heart of Christmas love
And you'll have a little Christmas today!
