Power of Now

by Faith Rivera

VERSE

The power of now is always present.
Nowhere to be than where you are.
The power of now flows so gracefully.

The power of now is always perfect.
Nothing to be than who you are.
The power of now flows so easily.

CHORUS

Be willing to let go of ev'rything you think you need to know, oh
Be strong enough to let go of everything you think you need to control.
For everything goes away, let everything wash away,
The power of now.

VERSE

The power of now is everflowing,
Connecting us all to the One.
The power of now unfolds so peacefully.

CHORUS

ENDING

The power of now. (4x)
