Thing Called Life

by Faith Rivera

VERSE

Today is the day I will change my luck.
I will find three pennies and they'll be heads up.
I will walk like a queen in my tennis and jeans
'Cause I know where I come from.

CHORUS

From the stars and the sun, from the magical one,
I am part of this thing called life.
From the known to unseen, ev'rything in between,
I am part of this thing called life.
I am one with this thing called life.

VERSE

Today is the day I'll remember to see
Only good, only God happening through you and me.
I will not forget all the treasures due me
'Cause I know where I come from.

CHORUS

VERSE

Today is the day I'll be more of myself.
Love my skin, where I've been, and ev'ryone else.
No more push, no more pull, simply flow as I go
'Cause I know where I come from.

CHORUS (2x)
