

IMPORTANT SAFETY NOTICE

Dan Post Boot Company is recalling certain safety footwear. Below is a list of styles included in this recall. We are asking that you IMMEDIATELY stop wearing your boots to prevent potential injuries.

Please contact Dan Post Boot Company's return department at 1-866-301-4488 to return your boots and receive a refund. Please note that a refund will only be issued if your boots are returned to Dan Post Boot Company.

We apologize for this inconvenience but the quality of our boots and your safety is important to us.

Steel Toe Footwear

There is a potential safety issue with the steel toe cap which may not protect a wearer's foot in an impact or compression incident.

These boots were sold between August, 2016 and May, 2017. There are 2 styles of McRae Industrial branded products that are covered under this notice. The affected style number can be found on the product label on the inside lining of the boot.

Styles

MR85300

MR85394

Inside Label

Style #

Composite Toe Footwear

There is a potential safety issue with the composition toe cap which may not protect a wearer's foot in an impact or compression incident.

These boots were sold between October, 2015 and June, 2017. There are 3 styles of McRae Industrial branded products that are covered under this notice. The affected style number can be found on the product label on the inside lining of the boot.

Styles

MR47321

MR47616

MR87321

Inside Label

Style #

Static Dissipative Footwear

There is a potential safety issue with the static dissipative property which may not dissipate (reduce) the amount of static electricity build-up on your body.

These boots were sold between October, 2013 and June, 2017. There are two styles of McRae Industrial branded products that are covered under this notice. The affected style numbers can be found on the product label on the inside lining of the boot.

Styles

MR43002

MR83310

Inside Label

Style #